

Equipment for another Ukrainian soldier

Ukrainian soldiers are still awaiting equipment and life-saving devices. Thanks to a public collection, yet another person received help. Another portion of aid went to Vasyl Panas, an employee of the children's department in the regional state administration in Horodenka. Vasyl will soon serve near Mariupol.

He has received solid leather military boots, a fully-equipped first-aid kit, a coat, a military jacket and a foam rubber mattress. Some of these items were purchased and donated by the Ukrainian community from the city of Olsztyn and its surrounding areas.

Earlier, Vasyl Wasyla Panas received a helmet, a bullet-proof vest, tactic glasses and other equipment necessary for the front line.
