

Analysis of TVP's fulfilment of its obligations regarding the publication of information on ongoing court proceedings for infringement of personal rights

All links that were the subject of the proceedings have either been marked with the appropriate inscription made in accordance with the court order or have even disappeared.

A total of 5 out of 38 articles which, according to the order, required information about pending proceedings, have disappeared. 4 out of 4 articles that were published in the wiadomosci.tvp.pl domain and only one in the TVP.info domain were removed. It should be noted that the wiadomosci.tvp.pl domain does not contain a single publication that was alleged to have violated the personal rights of the plaintiffs in the content of the lawsuit.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying a news article on the PolandInfo website. The browser's address bar shows the URL: polandinfo.com/38981953/germany-invites-deported-ukrainian-activist-to-discuss-poland. The website header includes the logo "POLAND IN" and a search icon. The main content area features a text box with a quote: „Telewizja Polska” S.A. with its registered office in Warsaw, hereby advises that the activities alleged in that publication against Lyudmyla Kozlovska and the Open Dialogue Foundation in Warsaw is the basic for an action to protect personal rights against „Telewizja Polska” S.A. with its registered office in Warsaw which is being heard by the Regional Court in Warsaw”. Below the quote is the article title: Germany invites deported Ukrainian activist to discuss Poland. The author is listed as "jmr/km/rg" and the date as "13.09.2018, 12:52". There are social media share buttons for Facebook, Twitter, and Email. A photograph of a large, empty hall with rows of purple seats is shown. To the right of the photo is a "LATEST NEWS" sidebar with three items: "Older children not to return to school before March: Health Min", "COVID-19: Polish vaccine in progress", and "Same-sex unions should not be recognised in Poland: minister". The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the search bar with the text "Wpisz tu wyszukiwane słowa", various application icons, and system tray information including the date "01.02.2021" and time "16:50".
